

Dear members of the EANA Council,

Happy New Year and looking forward to a successful 2008 EANA year.

There are again several announcements which might be of interest to you and to your national community:

1. ISSOL call for nominations for the Miller award for young scientists, DL: April 1st, 2008
2. Announcement of a PhD position in prebiotic chemistry at the University of Hohenheim (Stuttgart), Germany
3. Meetings and deadlines for abstracts:
 - 3.1. EGU (Astrobiology and Mars session and Early Earth session), reminder that the deadline for abstract submission is January 14, 2008
 - 3.1. Astrobiology Society of Britain Conference, July 1st - 4th 2008
4. Astrobiology Lecture Course Network (ABC-Net) is successfully running this winter semester, lectures are available under:
<http://streamiss.spaceflight.esa.int>

Please, spread this information to your national astrobiology community.

Many thanks in advance

With best regards
