Dear Colleagues,

The International Conference on Comparative Planetology: Venus-Earth-Mars will take place on 11-15 May 2009 at ESA-ESTEC, Noordwijk, The Netherlands.

Further information on the scientific content, as well as on practical aspects, is available on the conference website: <http://www.rssd.esa.int/eslab-2009/>

The abstract submission deadline for this ESLAB-09 conference is 02 March 2009.

We are looking forward your enthusiastic participation.

Best regards,
Agustin Chicarro

and the Local Organizing Committee
